SYMPOSIUM

The IASA Annual Symposium on November 19th at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Santry, was a huge success, uniting aspiring professionals and industry leaders. Alexandra Slabutu's discussion on rotorcraft leasing offered a deep dive into a vital sector, while Aer Lingus pilots captivated attendees with career journeys and advice for aspiring aviators. A highlight was the panel of past IASA committee members, whose reflections five years on inspired attendees to envision their futures. The event fostered meaningful connections and showcased IASA's role as a hub for aviation talent and innovation.

IASA 2025 PLAN

IASA is gearing up for an incredible 2025, marking our 10th anniversary with exciting plans and massive giveaways to be announced!
